ASTOR FOUNDS HOME FOR SICK CHILDREN

Buys Land at Rhinebeck for Institution for Young Convalescents as Memorial to Father.

A home for convalencent children from the city is to be established at Rhinebeck by Vincent Aster as a memorial to his father, the late John Jacob Aster. It will be called the John Jacob Astor Children's Convalescent Home. A site has already been purchased.

The site consists of ten acres, extend-ing from the Post road to the Rhinebeck cemetery, and was bought from the happiest woman in New York to- Robert P. Huntington, whose country of Mrs. John McCafferty of No. 474 home is now at Staatsburg, near Rainebeck. The grounds have great natural
